Date and Time: Sunday, May 11 4:00 pm - 6:00 pm

Address: 4920 52 St, Yellowknife, NT X1A 3X9

In collaboration with L'Association franco-culturelle de Yellowknife (AFCY), we're bringing you the 2024 film Bergers/Shepherds — an adaptation of Mathyas Lefebure's semi-autobiographical novel D'où viens-tu, berger?.

WHEN: Sunday, May 11th at 4PM

WHERE: Capitol Theatre

ABOUT:

A Canadian-French drama follows Mathyas, a Montreal advertising executive who abandons city life to become a shepherd in Provence. Faced with physical labor and personal transformation, Mathyas begins a demanding apprenticeship in the rugged mountains. His path takes a new turn with the arrival of Élise, a civil servant searching for meaning. Together, they embark on a transhumance, forging a new existence shaped by nature, hardship, and renewal.

GENRE: Drama

DIRECTOR: Sophie Deraspe

STARRING: Félix-Antoine Duval, Solène Rigot, Younes Boucif

LANGUAGE: French with English subtitles

What People Are Saying:

"Shepherds adapts Lefebure's memoir D'où viens-tu, berger? and might thrill audiences with its notion of connecting with a traditional way of life, while leaving them equally daunted by the realities of it. This is a touching, soul-stirring film that rejuvenates a viewer like a crisp flick of fresh air."

ABOUT THE FILM

A group of Amazon workers in Staten Island embarks on a historic campaign to unionize their warehouse, defying the odds and reshaping the labor movement. UNION chronicles the rise of the Amazon Labor Union (ALU), led by the charismatic and often underestimated Chris Smalls. What begins as a longshot effort by a handful of determined workers transforms into a powerful fight for dignity, power, and change — all without the support of major unions or political figures.

Address: Anywhere you play Pickleball

Smashin' for Compassion— our exciting pickleball fundraising event for Compassion House— is bringing communities together to support women who have to travel to Edmonton for cancer care.

We're encouraging pickleball players or teams to sign up, set fundraising goals, and collect donations for Compassion House. When you play pickleball anytime from May 25th to June 8th, let everyone know you're playing for women who need Sorrentino's Compassion House.

Your support means our House can continue to provide safe, comfortable, and affordable accommodations for women who must travel and stay in Edmonton during their cancer treatments. The House delivers much needed programs and services and creates a space where women can face their challenges together. In this House, no one faces cancer alone.

You can play anywhere—it's not a tournament. Every game, every match, every volley during that time helps support the women who rely on Sorrentino's Compassion House to provide affordable and supportive care.

Last year, Compassion House hosted 198 women from 76 different communities in Central and Northern Alberta. This is your opportunity to help us continue to make a difference, and have fun. It's pickleball with a purpose!

Never tried pickleball? Now's your chance to hit the court and reach for that golden pickle! You can also create a team with friends or colleagues. There's a list of pickleball courts on our website.

Want to cheer from the sidelines? Sponsor a player or team through online pledges.

See you on the court. And remember when life gives you pickleballs you smash them,

AND your fundraising goals.
