Address: Northern United Place

Cancer Peer Support Program

Talking Cancer with Your Kids

Saturday February 18, 2023

11 am-12 pm

Some of our hardest conversations are explaining to children someone they love has been diagnosed with cancer. Finding the right words can be difficult, especially if you are struggling with your own emotions and fears about your diagnosis or that of a loved one.

*Join Jodi Kapicki, licensed NWT psychologist (<http://www.northstarnwt.ca>) for a guided conversation on what to do and say when you talk about cancer with kids. This program will be in-person.

*Talking Cancer with Your Kids is available to all NWT residents who have experienced a cancer diagnosis or are a caregiver to someone with cancer. Registration is limited to 15 people and FREE for participants.

To register, please send an email and your phone number by Wednesday, February 15th, 2023, to info@breasthealthnwt.ca A Board Member will contact you to confirm your participation and location in Yellowknife.

Cancer Peer Support Group

Date and Time: Tuesday, February 28 7:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Address: PO Box 1672 Yellowknife NWT X1A 2P3

Are you a woman diagnosed with cancer? Going through treatment? Completed your treatment? Would you like to connect with other women having similar experiences? If you've answered "YES" to any of these questions, then a peer support group may interest you. It is an opportunity to share, learn, get support, and be with others who are also living with cancer. The NWT Breast Health/Breast Cancer Action Group invites you to join our monthly peer support sessions for women by women.

If you would like to attend this monthly Cancer Peer Support Meeting, please contact the Action Group's Peer Support Coordinator at YKpeergroup2025@gmail.com by 6:30 PM of THE DATE OF THE MEETING.

If you would like to arrange a one-on-one session with a trained cancer peer, please let the Coordinator know.

This is an in-person event and the AG will be adhering to all health precautions. Masks are required by all attendees.

Stay well.
