

Arctic Inspiration Prize (AIP)

Provides funding and support to northerners in helping bring their ideas for community programs and projects to reality

ARCTIC
INSPIRATION PRIZE

Arctic Inspiration Prize Overview

- The AIP prize was established in 2012 to recognize and fund community projects in education, health, social-cultural issues, environment and economy.
- AIP Program focuses on finding solutions for issues from community members.
- Rideau Hall Foundation.
- Numerous supporters of the AIP provide assistance beyond financial awards.

ARCTIC
INSPIRATION PRIZE

Previous Prize Winners

- Thaidene Nene Initiative – 2012 ($100,000)
- Foxy – 2014 ($1Million)
- Artic Indigenous Wellness Project – 2017 ($1Million)
- Northern Compass - 2019 ($1Million)
- Art Space - 2020 ($100,000)
- Support Well Being- 2021 ($500,000)
- Indigenous Youth River Guide Training - 2021 ($100,0000)

Arctic
Indigenous Wellness Project

Trustees

The AIP Charitable Trust was created in December 2015 and established northern ownership of AIP,

- Current Chair of the Charitable Trust - Wally Schuman, Hay River
- Inuvialuit Settlement Region – Lucy Kuptana. Inuvik
- AIP Laureates - Lois Philipp, Fort Providence

Arctic Impact
Project Charitable Trust

Involvement in the AIP

- Ambassador/ nominator
- Member of the selection committee
- Co-owner

ARCIC
ANALYSIS OF RESEARCH IN THE COUNTRIES OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

Indigenous Ownership

Northwest Territory
Métis Nation

ARCC
ARCTIC RESOURCE COUNCIL

Prize Partners

Prize Partners support the AIP in various ways:

- Contributing to AIP prizes awarded to Laureates annually.
- Contributing to projects beyond their prize terms through sustainability funding.
- Providing visibility in northern and national media publications.
- Supporting travel, providing advice on artistic and cultural programming.

Arctic
Council

Northern Partners - NWT

ARCTIC CIRCLE
COOPERATION PROGRAM

Southern Partners

Canadian Northern Economic Development Agency

Agence canadienne de développement économique du Nord

AGNICO EAGLE

ATCO

ARCTIC

COOPERATION PROGRAM

Foundation
Fondation

ArcticNet
ᐃᐅᐅᖃᑦᑕᖃᑕᐅᖃ ᑕᐅᓯᓂᐱᖃᑕᐅᖃ

amazon

Newfoundland
&
Labrador

Why am I here?

- To thank you for your past contributions to the AIP ($10,000 in 2019, 2020 and 2021)
- To seek a future commitment ($10,000 in 2023, 2024 and 2025?)

American Indian College Fund
AMERICAN INDIAN COLLEGE FUND