Travel Report for the Canadian Alliance to End Homelessness (CAEH) 2023: NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ENDING HOMELESSNESS

Conference Report Nov 7 to 11 2023 (Conference dates Nov 8 to 10)

I attended the Canadian Alliance to End Homelessness (CAEH) 2023: National Conference On Ending Homelessness from November 8 to 10, 2023, with travel on November 7 to 11.

Day by day highlights are outlined below.

TUESDAY NOVEMBER 7

• Travel from Yellowknife to Halifax

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 8

- Attended CAEH 2023 conference starting with opening plenary at 8am. Opened by Chair Don lveson (former Mayor of Edmonton), Mayor Mike Savage of Halifax, and song and dancing from members of the Mi'kmaq Native Friendship Centre.
- Attended morning session on the issue of shifting policy and adapting bylaw responses to unsheltered homeless populations
 - o key takeaways from this session; Penticton created a public safety bylaw focused not on enforcement but to create a permission structure for MED to engage with people experiencing homelessness. Shift some municipal enforcement resources to community safety. Need a safe use area for those with addiction issues..
- Attended afternoon sessions on harm reduction and being agents for change for equity seeking groups.

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 9

- Attended morning plenary with Dr. Marie Helene-Pelletier, speaking about mental health and resilience both for people experiencing homelessness and for people working to support those people.
- Attended morning session on gender-based violence and where we go as a society from here.
 Key takeaway is the need to include thinking on caring for women and girls, and the homeless population in emergency responses.
- Lunch working session with speaker Jeff Olivet from the US Interagency Council on Homelessness
- Attended an afternoon session on collaboration and innovation to address rural homelessness.
 The latter session had a great presentation from Leigh Bursey, a former City Councillor from Brockville, Ontario on the cross section of legislating, activism, service provision, and users themselves.

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 10

- -Morning Plenary with David Coletto from Abacus research speaking about the national opinion polling data around housing and homelessness.
- -Followed up with a session on rethinking what is an emergency shelter in rural and remote communities.

SATURDAY NOVEMBER 11

-Return travel from Halifix to Yellowknife. Trip extended to evening of Sunday November 12 due to the flight to Yellowknife on Saturday having to return to Vancouver.

If there are any questions I am happy to discuss at any time.

Travel Report for the Canadian Alliance to End Homelessness (CAEH) 2023: NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ENDING HOMELESSNESS

Conference Report

Nov 7 to 11 2023 (Conference dates Nov 8 to 10)

I attended the Canadian Alliance to End Homelessness {CAEH) 2023: National Conference On Ending Homelessness from November 8 to 10, 2023, with travel on November 7 to 12. Note there was an extra day of travel returning to Yellowknife due to flight delays

Day by day highlights are outlined below.

TUESDAY NOVEMBER 7

Travel from Yellowknife to Halifax

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 8

- Attended CAEH 2023 conference starting with opening plenary at 8am. Opened by Chair Don Iveson (former Mayor of Edmonton), Mayor Mike Savage of Halifax, and song and dancing from members of the Mi'kmaq Native Friendship Centre.
- Attended morning session on about innovative transitional housing and housing first projects that are supporting people and especially youth experiencing homelessness in rural and remote communities.
 - key takeaways from this session;
 - Mobile and outreach are key to delivery of effective services to vulnerable populations. Meet them where they are not where service providers are.
 - Zoning and bylaws currently barriers to small and temporary housing solutions and city can address these
 - Alternative building practices like 3d printing can create unique opportunities in small communities
- Attended two afternoon sessions. Downtowns and Main Streets: The Role of Business Improvement Districts in Addressing Homelessness and Governance Approaches Towards Ending Homelessness
 - Key takeaways were that only by working with businesses can these problems be addressed
 - Public spaces such as libraries can be used to provide supports for social and homeless issues of clients

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 9

- Attended morning plenary with Dr. Marie Helene-Pelletier, speaking about mental health and resilience both for people experiencing homelessness and for people working to support those people.
- Attended morning session on Lessons from Homelessness Responses in Rural Areas and Small and Medium-Sized Cities

- Takeaway is small cities can benefit from the local connections and networks to assist in program and housing delivery including landlords, social services and government
- Lunch working session with speaker Jeff Olivet from the US interagency Council on Homelessness
- Attended an afternoon session on From NIMBY to YIMBY (Yes, In My Back Yard!)
 - Takeaway was that communicating often and authentically with neighborhoods when a new social housing or services are being placed there is key to both getting built but also success of clients using those services after it is a part of that community.
 - Strategy to combat NIMBY'ism is key form start of any project

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 10

- Morning Plenary with David Coletta from Abacus research speaking about the national opinion polling data around housing and homelessness.
- Morning Session on Successful Landlord Engagement
 - Takeaways are that the market housing providers can be successfully engaged to provide housing units to both non-[profits and governments
 - Requires agencies engaging market housing providers to understand the needs of the landlords financially and operationally to successfully work together
 - Covered topics such as maser leasing, housing first, leasing incentives and wrap around services

SATURDAY NOVEMBER 11

• Return travel from Halifax to Yellowknife. Trip extended to Sunday November 12 due to the flight to Yellowknife on Saturday having to return to Vancouver.
