Governance and Priorities Committee Report for December 11, 2023

9. Councillor McLennan read a report of a meeting held on Monday, December 11, 2023 at 12:05 p.m. in the City Hall Council Chamber.

- #0002-24 10. Councillor McLennan moved,
Councillor Fequet seconded,

That Administration conduct additional engagement with the public on the replacement of the playing surfaces at the Fieldhouse and remove all constraints from the conversation (e.g., budget, whether interlocking sections. etc.), including specific opportunities for current and potential fieldhouse user groups to explore added value, and keep a record of specific input that will be made available publicly prior to any decision being made on the playing surface.

- #0003-24 11. Councillor Fequet moved,
Councillor Payne seconded,

That the motion be TABLED.

Those opposed to tabling a motion noted that Administration had done work to make sure all residents had a say and that motion had been achieved already.

Those in favour of tabling the motion noted that the intent of the motion was to make sure that all user groups have an ability to provide input and make sure engagement was happening and with work being already done to reassess later.

With the approval of the seconder, Councillor Fequet withdrew his motion to table.
